INBIE prepared workshop were was discussed and presented practical issues, content related to the topics of the project, discussion with seniors that were active during the solidarity movement in the 80's., and served as a good channel for dissemination activities as information about the project, its objectives, partners of the project, events and outcomes were given.

Gabriela's team mainly focused on the video interviews. The young people that were involved in the group were highly interested in documentaries, videos and interviews. They had the expertise and help from Krzysztof Kasprzak, a film maker with more than 20 films about Czestochowa and Solidarity movement. He has given invaluable advices, own photos and films from his famous film „Zwykli Ludzi, Niezwykłe Sprawy – Historia Solidarności Czestochowskiej” [Usual People, Unusually Matters - History of Czestochowa Solidarity], year of production = 2012, 50 min. Other photos and document came from people that INBIE interviewed like Zbigniew Bonarski and Anna Rakocz.

Five video interviews were recorded, edited and given to the coordinator during the event in Budapest and later uploaded to the server of the coordinator Institution, following the rules stated in the contract. One of the films was presented in the Final event in Hungary. Four people represented INBIE in the event: Contact person, member of the committee organizer of the Polish event, and two young volunteers.

50 BUDET questionnaires were passed in the Silesian region and the results were sent to the Leader Partner that prepared a final report after receiving the local reports from all partners. An excel document including all the answers, was created and forwarded accordingly to the coordinators proposal.

After each event the evaluation form was filled in and sent it to the project's coordinator. After each workshop, photos and films were uploaded on INBIE social media pages (Facebook, City council home page and YouTube) and also a press released from other sources were published on INBIE's website, to make more visible and open to everybody interested in our project.

The International event and workshop in Poland took place on the 05th to 08th June 2017. INBIE prepared a home page where all information about the project event were uploaded. All information were available two months before the event [<http://inbie.pl/budet/index.html>]

2. Changes in relation of the original application

Fundacja Instytut Badan i Innowacji w Edukacji – Poland [INBIE] decided to make some changes concerning dissemination activities to make more visible the objectives and outputs of the project:

- Create five films and published on YouTube channel from INBIE [<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLkI5A-FUzzjuVN8hJYDWZ8I6t-7BBxkff>]
- Published a book available on research-gate platform https://www.researchgate.net/publication/322643716_BUILDING_DEMOCRATIC_EUROPE_TOGETHER_MULTIPLIER_EVENTS_IN_CZESTOCHOWA

- Organized a “Multiplier event with local participants and Ukrainian leaders and Educational representatives”. The main objectives of this event was to raise awareness of dictatorship experiences when meeting senior activists; raise awareness on the past and promote democracy and freedom of speech, and to promote all activities, achievements and outputs developed during the projects life.

These activities had a big impact not only in the local society and our project development but also had an important echo internationally.

3. Impact and Citizen involvement
